

CALL REQUIREMENTS

Call Title: A curative approach to foster circular economy on multilayer plastic packaging (ECOLAYER)

Contact person: José Miguel García Pérez

Department: Chemistry

Category:  Researcher

Others

Workday:  Full time

Part time

Aim:

Collaborate in the research tasks of the Polymers Group, under the direction of senior researchers and post-docs, within the framework of the ECOLAYER project ("A curative approach to foster circular economy on multilayer plastic packaging"), a project financed by the State Research Agency, Ministry of Science and Innovation of Spain. Carry out daily tasks of maintenance and cleaning of the laboratories of the Polymers Group, as well as placing orders, order management, etc. Document their work in accordance with the rules of the Research Group, following the guidelines indicated for each type of work. Participate in the weekly meetings of the Polymers Group.

Requirements of the candidate: Vocational training. High grade formative cycle in laboratory analysis and quality control

Duration: Indefinite contract

Gross monthly remuneration: 1.516 €

Application submission deadline: November 17, 2022

Documents to be provided:

- Identification document
- Curriculum Vitae, in free format
- Academic certificate of the required title.
- Practical training and demonstrable work experience in matters related to the ECOLAYER project, especially those related to sample preparation and the use of polymer characterization techniques, and especially those related to the treatment and measurement of multilayer food films.