

CALL REQUIREMENTS

Call Title: Doctoral Student Position- Research in Life Cycle Sustainability Assessment

Contact person: Alfredo Bol Arriba/Sonia Martel Martín

Department: ICCRAM

Category: Researcher

Others

Workday: Full time

Part time

Aim: The Environment and Sustainability Research Group of ICCRAM works in the development of new approaches to assess and guide Sustainable by Design processes. Environmental Life Cycle Assessment, also cost and social evaluations will be developed and integrated for a full analysis. The candidate will be involved in the research in different industrial processes including among others aerospace / automotive sector components manufacturing, novel nanomaterials development, wastes' recovery, etc.

Requirements of the candidate: MSc in mechanical engineering, industrial engineering, environmental science, materials' science, chemistry, or related disciplines. Great communicative (both written and spoken) skills in English. International experience as scholarships or secondments. Willing to develop a PhD thesis. Availability and willingness to travel abroad for project meetings and research secondments.

Duration: 12 months.

Gross monthly remuneration: 1.500

Application submission deadline: February 15, 2021

Documents to be provided: MSc Certification. Application form (Annex 1). Copy of DNI, Passport or equivalent (NIE). Curriculum Vitae (CVN <https://cvn.fecyt.es/> or Europass).