

CALL REQUIREMENTS

Call Title: AquaCoLab: collaborative laboratories and citizen science for monitoring of the quality of freshwater systems

Contact person: Antonio Canepa Oneto

Department:

Category:  Researcher

Others

Workday:  Full time

Part time

Aim:

Coordination and communication with the different groups that participate in the project.

Coordination and develop training activities and field sampling.

Coordination and supervision of the activities and financial reports of the proposal

Support in outreach activities (english and spanish).

Support in design, planning and writing of scientific documents and technical reports.

Requirements of the candidate:

PhD. in environmental science, marine science, ecology and related. Msc in Global Change or Climate Change. Degree in disciplines related to natural science (ecology, marine science, environmental science).

Previous and demonstrable experience in coordinating citizen science projects.

Previous and demonstrable experience in coordinating and managing of the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT) projects.

Knowledge of aquatic natural systems (continental and marine) and techniques of research methodology, design and execution of field sampling demonstrable through authorship (co-authorship) of scientific publications and through participation in research campaigns.

Experience in social network management.

Fluently in spanish and english language.

Other merits.

Duration: starting in 01/12/2021 until 30/06/2022

Gross monthly remuneration: 1997.00€

Application submission deadline: See web page

Documents to be provided: Curriculum Vitae (resumen) and documentation accrediting the specific requirements and the merits provided