

CALL REQUIREMENTS

Call Title: PhD in Chemistry as research staff.

Contact person: María Cruz Ortiz Fernández.

Department: Chemistry, Analytical Chemistry area.

Category: Researcher

Others

Workday: Full time

Part time

Aim: The hired person should develop several different tasks related to the research project, including planning and conducting experiments with the instruments in the laboratory (GC-MS, HPLC-DAD, HPLC-FLD, ATR-FTIR), obtaining and managing results, writing reports and routine maintenance of instrumental equipment.

Requirements of the candidate: PhD in Chemistry; academic record; scientific publications; participation in research projects related to the present one; advance management in both spectroscopic and chromatography techniques, as well as about the needed multivariate chemometric techniques; knowledge of the European regulations related to the issues addressed in the project; ability to organize work, individually and in group, and to present results and reports in English.

Duration: 2 years

Gross monthly remuneration: 2.400 €

Application submission deadline: 7 working days, counting from the day after the call publication in the electronic board of Universidad de Burgos.

Documents to be provided: Copies of an identity card, the title of PhD in Chemistry, academic record, Curriculum Vitae, published papers, and accreditation of participation in research projects.