Description of activities,tasks	The trainee will cooperate with the foreign language teachers in primary school since the most part of primary teachers have an average level of competence A2/B1 of the CEFR, not sufficient to led CLIL lessons in the classes. The main areas of the curriculum involved will be English, art, history, science and geography. The assistant will plan and led different CLIL lessons in class 3/4 and 5 and will evaluate the students together with the class teachers. He/she will prepare L2 speaking activities, songs, role play and language games to involve all the pupils in a joyful way and to create a positive attitude towards the foreign languages. All the CLIL teaching unit will be evaluated by a special school commission and filed for the next school year according to the Italian ALI CLIL standard. At the same time while interacting with the trainee the primary teachers will be able to improve their level in English too. Also our lower secondary school needs a language assisitant to organize Key English test certification courses for the students in the eight classes (13 y.o.)
