Application deadlines

Until Mai 15th for the first semester or full year

Until November 15th for the second semester

Specifications

We accept both undergraduate and graduate students. Depending on the department, some Master 1 & 2 courses are not open to exchange students. All the common fields are open except for the Medicine department, unless specified in the agreement.

Number of students

It depends on the agreement signed between our universities.

A B1 level in French is required and a B2 level is highly recommended. Students who are French native speakers do not need to submit the language proficiency test.

- DELF Diploma (<https://www.ciep.fr/en/delf-tout-public>) of the current year: B1 may be accepted level but it is strongly recommended to get B2 level

- TCF test certificate (<http://www.ciep.fr/en/tcf/index.php>): B1 level may be accepted but it is strongly recommended to get B2 level

Language requirements

*Please note that for the programs: Lettres modernes, LLCER Anglais, LLCER espagnol, LEA, Histoire, Géographie and Sciences de l'éducation students need to be proficient in French and get at a B1 level (DELF Diploma) in French language, in accordance to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR* to follow courses in "Licence" (Undergraduate) and a B2 (DELF Diploma) for "Master" (Graduate) courses.*

Note: Students who are native speakers do not need to submit the language proficiency test.
